12 November, 2012

To Whom It May Concern:

It is the policy of the Odum School of Ecology to prohibit the consumption of alcohol by undergraduate students, regardless of age or institution, and guests under the age of 21, on Odum School properties. Further, it is also the School policy to prohibit the wrongful use or possession of any controlled substances by students or guests on Odum School properties. Any student organizations that use our properties should advise their members of this policy. Any student or guest who violates this policy will not be welcome to use our facilities in the future.

Yours sincerely,

John L. Gittleman,
Dean and Professor of Ecology
